

AABA Civil Rights and Women's Committees, Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Asian Law Caucus, and the Association of Corporate Counsel present:

Leveling the Playing Field: GENDER, BIAS, and ASIAN AMERICANS IN THE LAW AND SILICON VALLEY

PROFESSOR JOAN WILLIAMS is a Distinguished Professor of Law at UC Hastings and Director of the Center for WorkLife Law. She is a nationally recognized expert on gender inequality in the workplace and author of eight books, including "What Works for Women at Work: Four Patterns Working Women Need to Know."

MICHELLE LEE represents employees at Rudy, Exelrod, Zieff & Lowe, LLP. She was a member of the Ellen Pao v. Kleiner Perkins trial team.

WINIFRED KAO (MODERATOR) is the Litigation Director of Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Asian Law Caucus, where she represents low-wage Asian American and immigrant workers, focusing on discrimination, wage and hour, workplace safety, and wrongful termination issues.

Date: Monday, June 1, 2015
Time: 6:15 PM, reception to follow
Location: Morrison Foerster
425 Market Street
San Francisco, CA 94105

Space is limited! Please RSVP at
<https://aababay.intouchondemand.com/aaeventinfo.aspx?eventid=6644>

1 hour MCLE Elimination of Bias Credit